THEME: GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE IN RURAL COMMUNITIES: POLICY AND ACTION

The Center for Empowering Victims of Gender-based Violence is hosting a virtual (Zoom) monthly roundtable series during March, April, May, June, and July of 2021. Each month, we will feature on-going and completed scholarly works on gender-based violence in rural communities. We welcome doctoral students and both emerging scholars and those well-versed in the topics. We also encourage scholars from any discipline to consider submitting for one/several roundtable events.

The roundtable series aims to:

1. facilitate cross-disciplinary research focusing on the causes and control of gender-based violence;
2. provide collaborative networks for researchers to showcase evidence-based approaches addressing gender-based violence;
3. develop academic-community collaborations through experiential-learning, research, and assessment; and
4. create educational opportunities and policy recommendations that enhance the well-being of rural communities.

SUGGESTED TOPICS

1. Gender-based Violence in Rural Communities: What do we know? What do we need? What can we do better?
2. The Impact of Gender-based Violence in Rural Communities—A Roundtable Discussion with Justice System and Health Care Professionals
3. Gender-based Violence for Educators: A Toolkit to Address Gender-based Violence in your Teaching
4. Gender-based Violence Against Indigenous Women in Rural Communities
5. Gender-based Violence Against LGBTQIA+community in Rural Communities
6. Gender-based Violence Against Immigrant Populations in Rural Communities

Have an idea for an upcoming roundtable? Please send your ideas to Dr. Ziwei Qi at z_qi5@fhsu.edu
