

TRANSITION TO TEACHING

The T2T program is designed to fill teaching vacancies in school districts through an alternate route to teacher licensure. The T2T program uses the restricted license and has developed an online professional education curriculum meeting all of the Kansas Professional Education Standards. FHSU's education programs are fully accredited by CAEP and the Kansas State Department of Education.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if I have a few course deficiencies of meeting FHSU's content area program?

All content coursework must be met prior to qualifying for the program. One or two pre-eligibility courses may be taken during the first year of the program.

What is the tuition I will pay?

FHSU's tuition continues to be one of the lowest in the mid-state's region. The courses are taken at the graduate level. For current tuition rates, visit: FHSU.edu/sfs/students_parents/tuition

When can I start the program?

The program is geared toward candidates who are hired to begin teaching jobs in August. You will start with an Induction and Introduction to Teaching course during the summer prior to the beginning of the school year. Accommodations can be made for those hired to begin teaching in January.

Will I be required to attend classes in Hays?

The greatest benefit of this program is that all courses are online.

What type of teaching license will I have?

You will have a Restricted Teaching License while in the program. Once you complete the program and meet KSDE licensure requirements, you will be eligible to apply for a Professional Teaching License.

Can I enter the program if I am working as a para or substitute teacher?

No, KSDE requires teachers to be employed under contract in an appropriate assignment.

May I begin taking the courses before I have a job?

The Fall/Spring courses are designed to be completed while employed as a teacher. Assignments require reflections related to your classroom teaching.

Will a school district hire me without having a teaching license?

Most districts are aware that this is an alternative licensure program and getting a license is contingent upon being hired. A letter of eligibility will be provided to you to share with potential employers.
