

ENGLISH

WHAT IS ENGLISH?

The Department of English offers courses in writing, language, and literature. The study of English forms a cornerstone of a liberal arts education and will help you to become an adaptable thinker, confident in your ability to determine your own path; learn to analyze, express, and understand information at a time when information literacy is an essential skill; know how to bring innovation and creativity to the workplace and acquire skills that employers are searching for, like critical thinking, creativity and written/verbal communication. Because these skills are transferable to dozens of fields, earning a degree in English not only lets you explore your interests in writing, language, and literature, but will also give you extraordinary career flexibility.
