

Pathway to Major Declaration:

First Semester Exploratory Academic Advising

Starting as an Exploratory major positions you to make a thoughtful and informed decision about your major. Here is how we help you get declared.

1st Academic Advisor Meeting

Meet with your academic advisor during the first three weeks of the fall semester. We want to get to know you, your story and brainstorm how we can help you on your major exploration journey.

Complete FHSU.MyMajors.com

Complete the FHSU.MyMajors.com assessment to identify your Top 10 list of majors at FHSU that align with your academic and career interests. Be prepared to discuss your results in your 2nd Academic Advisor Meeting.

2nd Academic Advisor Meeting

This mid-semester check-in with your academic advisor provides the opportunity to share your thoughts on your Top 10 majors as well as to discuss academic performance, support services and determine next steps for major exploration.

Majors and Graduate Programs Fair

Attend the fair! Be inspired to engage in the major exploration process. Use this event to learn more about majors offered at the institution and meet faculty who can help you find options that fit your interests.

Exploration Engagements

Attend major specific events with other Exploratory majors to learn about areas of interest. Detailed information about scheduled engagements will be provided in the monthly Exploratory Newsletter sent to your FHSU email.

3rd Academic Advising Meeting

Time to talk about your schedule for the upcoming semester. During this meeting, we will discuss registration, and strategies for test-driving majors.
