

Workplace Environment Committee

PURPOSE:

- Promote an improved workplace experience and positive environment at the University
- Advise the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) on policies and practices that will move the University toward achieving a “Best College to Work For” status in the Chronicle for Higher Education survey
 1. Conduct the survey every two years and present an analysis and interpretation of the results to the ELT
 2. Conduct focus groups to determine the factors underlying the lowest performance areas, analyze the results, and make recommendations that should improve the ratings in subsequent surveys
- Develop and administer a survey or other mechanisms that measure the morale of the faculty and staff, and recommend strategies to improve it.
- Create and run “new traditions” that contribute to a sense of recognition and valuing our employees
