11. UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Honesty Policy

Membership in the FHSU learning community imposes upon the student a variety of commitments, obligations and responsibilities. It is the policy of FHSU to impose sanctions on students who misrepresent their academic work. These sanctions will be selected by appropriate classroom instructors or other designated persons consistent with the seriousness of the violation and related considerations... Students participating in any violation of this policy must accept the consequences of their actions. Classroom instructors and/or university review/appeals committees and administrators will assess the sanctions for violation of this policy. The seriousness of the violation will dictate the severity of the sanction imposed. More information can be found at http://www.fhsu.edu/academic/provost/handbook/ch\_2\_academic\_honesty/

Statement of Accessibility and Services for Students with Disabilities

If you have a disability that may have an impact on your ability to carry out assigned course work and if you wish to seek any accommodations for this course, you must contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD). SSD is located in the Kelly Center, Picken Hall, Room 111, 785-628-4401. SSD will review your documentation and determine, with you, what academic accommodations are necessary and appropriate for you that can be accommodated in this course. All information and documentation of your disability is confidential and will not be released by SSD without your written permission. Students can find more information at <http://www.fhsu.edu/disability/get-access/>. Instructors who need help to create instructional materials for students with special needs can seek help from Learning Technologies (LT), 785-628-4194.

Title IX

FHSU is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex, gender and gender identity are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. This includes all types of gender and relationship violence: sexual violence or harassment, domestic and dating violence, and stalking.

If you wish to speak confidentially about an incident of gender and relationship violence, talk to someone at The Kelly Center, the Student Health Center, or the Options Sexual and Domestic Violence Campus Advocate who is housed in the Student Health Center.

If you wish to report an incident or have questions about school policies and procedures regarding Title IX issues, please contact Dr. Keegan Nichols, Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and the FHSU Title IX Coordinator knnichols@fhsu.edu. Or, you can report to Residential Life Staff or University Police, which are non-confidential reporters.

If you are unsure about the reporting status of an individual, ask them directly before disclosing sensitive information. If they are non-confidential, they can direct you to someone you can talk to in complete confidentiality, which does not have to be officially reported.
