Appointments by request.

COURSE INFORMATION:

Pre-requisite: ART 201 Survey of Art History I and ART 202 Survey of Art History II or instructor permission.

This course is a survey of major works of ancient art, dating from approximately 30,000 BCE to 400 CE, and will include all forms of art, with a focus architecture, painting, and sculpture, along with the formal analysis of the artwork. As a foundation for interpreting these works, emphasis will be placed on the social, religious, and political contexts of each period.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Recognize the types and styles of art from each period, from Prehistoric art through Etruscan and Roman art.
- Assess the relationship between the development of major art styles and movements and the political, social, religious/spiritual, and intellectual ideas of the ancient civilizations and the associated periods.
- Identify the influences of both past and contemporary art on the evolution of art from each ancient civilization and the associated periods.
- Analyze and evaluate ancient visual material while employing descriptive, conceptual, and appropriate vocabulary.

ATTENDANCE:

The study of art history requires familiarity with a large number of images and concepts. Excessive absences will therefore jeopardize your final grade. It is your responsibility to make up all materials missed due to absence.

Students will lose 2 attendance points for each absence and 1 attendance point for each tardy, in addition to any points given for participation and/or miscellaneous in-class assignments.

If you miss an exam and/or assignment deadline because of illness or other emergency, you must notify the instructor as soon as possible. Make-up examinations will ONLY be given for DOCUMENTED reasons involving personal, medical, and / or family emergencies.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

ALL cell phones / electronic devices must be PUT AWAY and SILENCED while students are in class. The use of laptop computers is permitted ONLY if students are using the computers to take notes or for purposes related to the class. Attendance and/or participation points may be deducted due to unauthorized use of devices in class.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

All assignments must be your own work! Visual and/or written plagiarism will not be tolerated. Students are encouraged to read FHSU's Academic Honesty Policy, which is found in the University Catalog and online at:
