3:32 (3 minutes) Greenleaf reported that the revised outcomes and guidelines we approved last week made it to Academic Affairs this week. Academic Affairs discussed them, raised some questions about them, and decided to put them to an online vote. If the motion passes, our revisions will move on to Faculty Senate to be taken up at their May meeting. If the vote fails, we may need to meet with Academic Affairs in the next week or so to listen to their concerns and answer any questions they might have.

3:35 (2 minutes) Chair reported that the Department of History is interested in proposing a course satisfying the CORE pre-KBOR Engaged Global Citizens outcomes (objective 3.3). This would be relevant for those students who, recently having started at FHSU, choose not to switch over to the program that goes into effect next semester.

3:37 (1 minute) Chair announced that our committee will be chaired by Brad Will next year.

3:38 (2 minutes) We decided to hold our April 27 meeting (3:30-5:00) at Gella's Diner & Lb. Brewing Co.

3:40 (2 minutes) The committee considered a proposal for ART 491: Late Modernism and Contemporary Art to satisfy the CORE pre-KBOR outcomes 1.4 (information literacy). The proposal was approved. The governance of these outcomes, including any future changes, will be passing to the departments with the changes going into effect next semester.

3:42 (3 minutes) The committee decided to hold off considering any new course proposals this semester. The course approval process will restart in August.

3:45 The meeting ended. Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday April 20, in Rarick 107.
