

EARTH SCIENCE WEEK

EARTH MATERIALS IN OUR LIVES

CROSSWORD CHALLENGE

GEOGRAPHY

Word Bank:

DEFORESTATION CARTOGRAPHY CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY ECOSYSTEM
 DORMITORY SETTLEMENT CARRYING CAPACITY BIOGEOGRAPHY CONSERVATION

Across:

2. The wanton cutting down of trees and clearing of forests for human use is called _____. This leads to soil erosion and reduces the capacity of the soil to retain water.
3. _____ refers to the ecological community and its environment, functioning as one whole unit.
4. _____ is the theory that only a certain level of population that an environment can hold.
8. _____ is included in the geography terms because it studies the distribution of animals and plants on the planet.

Down:

1. _____ is the geographic terminology means the art or techniques of making maps.
5. A place or a town, where its residents are daily commuters, as they are employed in some other place
6. _____ is the study of human civilization and its impact on the geography.
7. In geography, the process of maintaining natural landscape as well as the man-made landscape, just the way it is

