

FHSU DEPARTMENT OF GEOSCIENCES
GEOGRAPHY AWARENESS WEEK
URBAN GEOGRAPHY

CITY RIDDLES

USE THE CLUES PROVIDED TO FIGURE OUT
WHAT CITY WE ARE LOOKING FOR

WHEN YOU THINK YOU HAVE IDENTIFIED THE CORRECT
CITIES SEND US YOUR GUESSES TO GEOSCIENCES@FHSU.EDU

1. This city is Located on a large Island Nation off the Coast of China. This City is the largest in its country, and was once called Eno, this city is famous for its cherry blossoms, and Sensō-ji.

2. This city is nicknamed the City of Lights. It is the center of its country economy, Politics, and culture. It is famous for its art museums and historical buildings. This city is home to the Eiffel tower

3. This is the Northernmost, and coldest megacity in the world. It is the center of both its own country, as well as Eastern Europe's economic, cultural, and scientific centers. This city is home to the third busiest metro in the world with over 6 million passengers a day.

4. This city is the capital of a nation consisting of 7641 islands. This city is located on the Island of Luzon, at the Mouth of the Pasig River.

5. This city has been called the most European City of South America. This city is also home to the largest port in all of South America. This city is home to the Recoleta Cemetery and Casa Rosada.

6. This city is the capital of its nation and is located on the island of Java. This city is the most populous city in the whole of Southeast Asia. This city is home to Istana Merdeka, and Kota Tua.

CITY RIDDLES

7. This is the largest city in Western Asia and located at the foot of the Elburz Mountain range. Farsi is the primary language spoken.

8. This city is known to be the home of the Liberty Bell, and the Independence Hall. The City's name means City of Brotherly Love. The city was originally settled by the Native people of North America in 8000 B.C.

9. This is the most populated city in Africa. This city is a megacity and servers as a major financial center for the whole continent of Africa. This city is home to the Lekki Conservation Centre, and the Nike Art Center.

10. This city lies on the canalized Mapocho River and features a view of the Andean Mountains to the East. It is one of the most Modern South American Cities. The city is home to Santa Lucía Hill, and La Moneda Palace.

11. This City is the largest and most populated city in the Western Hemisphere. The city is home to the country's economic, cultural, and federal centers. The city is home to Zócalo, Museo Nacional de Antropología, and the Frida Kahlo Museum.

12. This city was once known as Hanyang and is the breakdancing capital of the World. The city is located only 35 miles from its nations Northern Neighbor. This northern neighbor and the country have serious tension, and a history of conflicts.

13. This city has been settled for more than 6,000 years and is situated on the Nile River. This city is home to the pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx.

CITY RIDDLES

14. This city is located in the southern portion of the United States but is known for its culture and history. This city is the fourth largest in the United States. This city is known to be the most ethnically diverse metropolitan area of the USA. This city is home to the NASA mission control & training facility, as well as Hermann Park.

15. This city is located on two continents and straddles the Bosphorus Strait between the Sea of Marmara and the Black Sea. The city was once named Constantinople.

16. This city is located on an Island on the Western Side of the European Continent in the North Atlantic. This city is situated on the River Thames and has been a major settlement for over two thousand years. This city is home to Big Bend, and Buckingham Palace.

17. This city is located on the Eastern Coast of the United States. The City has many nicknames, one is the Big Apple. The city is famous for being the home to the statue of liberty, the empire state building, and times square.

18. This city is the most traveled to city in the whole of South America and is home to beautiful beaches. The Language of the city is Portuguese. The city is famous for its carnival, and the Christ the Redeemer Statue.

19. This city is a major Historical and cultural Center. It was founded by Peter the Great. The city lies about seven degrees south of the Arctic Circle.

20. This city at the heart of what was ancient Mesopotamia and lies about 330 miles from the headwaters of the Persian Gulf. This city lies on the Tigris River, and the primary language is Arabic.

