PROGRAM GUIDELINES & ELIGIBILITY

- Dependent student must be admitted to the University and degree seeking. The benefit is limited to the dependent's first bachelor's degree.
- A maximum of 12 undergraduate credit hours per semester is covered for fall, intersession/spring and 9 undergraduate credit hours in the summer.
- On-campus and FHSU Online credit hours are included. Maximum allowed per benefit is in-state on-campus tuition for undergraduate courses.
- A 2.0 minimum FHSU undergraduate GPA must be maintained.
- Non-credit workshops, community education, and concurrent enrollment courses are not included.
- A qualifying dependent is eligible for tuition assistance when the employee becomes eligible.
- Dependents of part-time employees will receive maximum tuition reduction commensurate with the level of FTE (i.e., the dependent of a .5 FTE employee will receive up to 50% in tuition assistance.)
