

Residential Life Terms and Conditions

The following constitutes the Fort Hays State University Stadium Place and Wooster Place contract. The housing services described in this contract are being offered under the terms and conditions stated herein. This contract becomes valid by completing and signing the Housing and Meal Plan Contract and submitting a $40 application fee to the Office of Residential Life. Students returning to an apartment will not need to pay an additional deposit. Completion and submission of the form indicates that the resident has read, understood, and agreed to all the terms and conditions of this contract. Upon signing the contract, termination of this contract is only permitted under section 14, Termination of Contract. By signing this contract I give Residential Life permission to text me important or emergency messages. Message and data rates may apply. I may choose to opt-out at any time by contacting the residential life office at srl@fhsu.edu

1. Eligibility

The resident must be enrolled at Fort Hays State University or be determined to be eligible to reside in student housing by the Director of Residential Life or appropriate Fort Hays State University authority. Residents with less than a full-time course load must submit a Part-Time Student Housing Notification form for approval. Students that have been out of high school for less than one year are required to live in university housing. Freshmen who have graduated from high school in the last year and do not have any extenuating circumstances are not permitted to live in Wooster Place. Students subject to special partnership arrangements of the University may also be eligible. Contact the Director of Residential Life to inquire into eligibility.

2. Contract Length

This contract starts on August 11, 2018, and ends on May 24, 2019. This contract cannot be terminated or cancelled except under the conditions cited in the Termination of Contract section of this contract. If entered into after the starting date listed above, this contract applies only to the remaining balance of the contract. A summer contract for the remainder of May and the months of June, July, and August may be completed in the Office of Residential Life.

3. University Agrees

Fort Hays State University agrees to provide housing in Stadium Place or Wooster Place under the terms and conditions herein stated. The university will provide electricity, gas, water, cable TV hook up, internet and trash removal. Heating and cooling ranges are based upon the university standard. Residents are prohibited from reprogramming the thermostat within their living spaces.

4. Resident Agrees

Resident agrees to make payment of all fees, to observe all rules, policies and regulations of Fort Hays State University which are by reference a part of this contract, and to honor the terms and conditions stated in this contract. Furthermore, resident agrees to abide by all state and federal laws. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including eviction from university housing. Disciplinary action may also be taken by the university in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct and other university policies.

5. Meal Program

Participation in a meal plan is mandatory for all residents within two years of graduating high school regardless of assigned housing space. This requirement also applies to those living in Stadium Place and Wooster Place. Flexi-Cash does not meet the meal plan participation this requirement.

6. Assignment Policy

Fort Hays State University will not discriminate in room or building assignment on the basis of race, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status or ancestry. Returners will be able to select their room in accordance with university reassignment and selection procedures. The university reserves the right to place limits on the number of residents to be reassigned in order to maximize space for new residents. New residents will be assigned to their preferred building to the extent possible. Failure to honor assignment preferences will not void this contract. The university reserves the right to change room or building assignments, to assign roommates, or to consolidate vacancies.

Students who complete a contract but do not select a room will be assigned according to Residential Life procedure.

7. Application Fee

A non-refundable contract fee of $40 and the completed housing contract (including payment of the security deposit) for the academic year are required to hold a room reservation and must be submitted to the Office of Residential Life.

8. Payment Schedule and Practices

A. Housing charges are divided into three payment due dates per semester. Due dates are set according to Student Fiscal Services policy. Specific amounts and due dates are listed on the student's TigerTracks Account Balance/Make a Payment page. Financial aid recipients will have the available funds disbursed first towards tuition and fees, then towards housing charges for the semester.

B. A $25.00 administrative fee is assessed each time a payment due date has been missed until the balance has been satisfied.

C. In the event that the resident fails to make payment by the delinquency date, the University may declare the contract terminated and may take possession of the Premises by any lawful means. Upon the University declaring that the contract is terminated, the resident will immediately surrender possession of the apartment to the University.

D. Resident agrees to pay all Fort Hays State University debts and charges pursuant to FHSU policies. Resident understands that the university is advancing value to them in the form of educational services and that their right to reside in university housing is expressly conditioned upon their agreement to pay the costs of room and any additional costs when those charges become due. Resident understands the university notifies students of debts by their Fort Hays State University e-mail account. It is the resident's responsibility to view charges in their TigerTracks Account Balance Page at <http://tigertracks.fhsu.edu/>.

E. Resident understands that past-due student accounts will result in University enrollment, transcript and services being withheld in accordance with University regulations. Delinquent debts may be reported to a credit bureau and referred to collection agencies, or litigated. Resident agrees to pay costs of collecting unpaid charges, including attorney fees and court costs. This agreement shall be construed in accordance with Kansas law and any lawsuit arising out of this agreement is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Ellis County District Court in Hays, Kansas.

9. Housing Scholarship Program

Housing scholarships are awarded on a semester-by-semester basis. Housing scholarship(s) will be prorated when a resident is exercising contract termination under Section 14, B. Housing scholarship amounts cannot exceed the amount owed. All housing scholarship amounts are subject to change without notice by Fort Hays State University. If the resident’s financial situation changes, Fort Hays State University will not be able to reduce the resident’s contract amount.

10. Damages and Costs

The resident agrees to pay the university for any damages, lost property, or unnecessary service costs incurred through accident, neglect, or intent. When more than one resident occupies the same apartment, and responsibility for damage or loss in the apartment cannot be ascertained by the university, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally between the residents of the apartment. In cases of loss, damage, or unnecessary service costs to common areas of the building, defined as those areas not assigned to an individual, the cost of repair, replacement and/or service may be assessed to each resident on a prorated basis. Charges may be taken from the security deposit. Any security deposit remaining after all institutional charges are paid will be returned after the move out date. Resident has 45 days after check-out to appeal damage charges. Appeals must be made in writing to srl@fhsu.edu. Estimated damage costs can be found on the Residential Life webpage.

11. Vacating

The resident will vacate their apartment no later than 6:00 p.m. on May 22nd. A check-out time will need to be set up with a Manager or Resident Assistant a minimum of 24 hours before departure. Residents may extend their lease for the summer by going to the Office of Residential Life and filling out an additional contract. Any resident who does not vacate by the deadline will be charged accordingly and face the disciplinary process.

12. Check-in and Check-out

Upon moving into their assigned apartment, the resident will complete, sign, and return the Room Condition Report to his/her Manager or Resident Assistant. This Room Condition Report will be an accurate and complete record of the contents and condition of the assigned apartment and will be the basis for apartment damage charges if assessed. When vacating the apartment, the resident agrees to follow established check-out procedures. This includes removing waste and debris and leaving the apartment in an acceptable, clean condition, and returning apartment key(s). Failure to follow established check-out procedures may result in the assessment of a $50 improper checkout fee and additional damage charges. Any personal property left at the end of the contract term will be removed from the apartment and disposed of according to practices, procedures or policies of the University. Fort Hays State University officers, employees, and agents shall not be responsible for any personal property not removed from the room by the resident.

13. Entry by Staff

University officials reserve the right to enter and inspect university housing units at any time. Inspections are conducted to protect and maintain the property of the university, ensure the health and safety of its residents, or whenever necessary to aid in the basic responsibility of the university regarding discipline and maintenance of an educational atmosphere. In such cases, effort will be made to notify the resident(s) in advance and to have resident(s) present at the time of entry.

14. Guests

Residents are responsible for the actions of their guests. Guests are to abide by university policies and be escorted at all times.

15. Termination of Contract

Termination of an FHSU Housing Contract falls under one of three categories. If the reason for cancellation does not meet one of those outlined in either Section A or Section B, the resident will be held responsible for full or partial payment of the housing contract including their meal plan, as described in the table below. Students that have been out of high school for less than one year are required to live in university housing.

A. Exempt Cancellation By Student: If the contract is terminated for one of the reasons listed below, the student shall have housing charges adjusted on a prorated daily basis. No termination fee shall apply.

- (1) Student is not yet living on campus, and will no longer be attending Fort Hays State University.
- (2) Resident has received an assignment to or is a participant in a university-sponsored internship, study abroad, exchange, or other university program which requires living away from Hays.
- (3) Resident has gone through and been approved by the University Medical Withdrawal procedure through the Office of Student Affairs.

B. Non-Exempt Cancellation by Student: If the contract is terminated for one of the reasons listed below, the resident shall have housing charges adjusted on a prorated daily basis plus be charged a $300 termination fee. In the following situations the resident may apply with proof to the Office of Residential Life for a contract termination.

- (1) A resident may apply for termination in order to live with parents who have moved to Hays after the contract start date.
- (2) If a resident becomes married after entering into this contract, a copy of the marriage certificate must be presented before an application for termination will be considered.
- (3) Resident has completed graduation requirements during the term of the contract.
- (4) If a resident is transferring to another university, proof of the transfer must be turned in when the letter is submitted.
- (5) A resident can apply for termination if they have extenuating circumstances that are deemed appropriate by a housing committee.

C. Cancellation by University: The university may terminate the housing contract under the conditions stated in the circumstances identified below. In each case, the resident will be responsible for full or partial payment of the contract, a meal plan contract if one exists and the forfeiture of the security deposit, as outlined in the table above.

- (1) The Office of Residential Life may terminate the housing contract with appropriate notice if the resident is found to have violated university rules, policies and regulations.
- (2) If a resident fails to comply with any portion of the housing contract, the Office of Residential Life may terminate the contract with appropriate notice.
- (3) The housing contract is automatically terminated if the resident is ineligible to return to the university for disciplinary reasons.
- (4) The university reserves the right to administratively remove any resident immediately if, in the judgment of the university, a resident's behavior will have an effect on his or her own safety or that of others.

D. Non-Return: Students contracted for a full academic year who do not return and are not enrolled at the university for the second semester will owe charges through the first Friday of that semester.

E. Any outstanding charges will continue to accrue until the official contract termination, approved check-out and completion of the damage assessment.

16. Off-Campus Living Requests

Students within one year of high school graduation wishing to be exempt from the on-campus housing requirement may fill out a Housing Contract Termination Form, which may be downloaded from the Residential Life page of the FHSU web site. This exemption is granted if:

- (1) You plan to live in the home of your parent/legal guardian within a 60-miles of the FHSU campus;
- (2) You are married, and plan to live with your spouse (whereupon proof of marriage is required with the HCT form);
- (3) You have other extenuating circumstances for which you feel exemption should be granted. These circumstances are only granted through appeal of the decision by the HCT committee.

17. Contract Assignment

This contract is not transferable and shall not be assigned by the resident.

18. University Housing Programming

A per student program fee is included in the overall housing rate for Residence Hall Association, Resident Assistant and Community Council programming.

19. Information Disclosure

Residents must fill out the Student Privacy Request Form in the Office of the Registrar if they do not want any of their personal information such as telephone number or address disclosed.

20. Hold Harmless Clause

The resident agrees to hold harmless Fort Hays State University and officers, employees, and agents from, and to indemnify them for, any claims for damages indemnify them for, any claims for damages including claims for negligence, as a result of property damage, bodily injury or death of the resident from any cause, or any other person as a result of actions or inactions of the resident. Fort Hays State University is not liable for property belonging to the resident which may be lost, stolen, or damaged in any way wherever this may occur on the premises.

21. Contract Changes

Changes may not be made in the terms and conditions of this agreement without the agreement and written permission of an appropriate university official.

22. Furniture

All university-provided furniture that is located in the assigned room or apartment must stay within the room for the entire year. Residential Life will not provide storage for furniture and any furniture that is missing upon checkout will be charged for accordingly.

FHSU Diversity Statement

Acknowledge: We acknowledge the diversity of our community and the many forms that diversity can take, including but not limited to race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeco- nomic status, religious beliefs and customs, political af liation, age, sex, and ability. We likewise acknowledge the invaluable importance of such diversity in our academic and residential settings.

Learn and Develop: As a community, we develop an understanding of each other's differences and realization of similarities, because under- standing is the rst step towards equity. We learn that these differences do not undermine our ability to work, study, and live together. We develop this understanding through the fostering of respectful and thoughtful con- versation and creative and collaborative programming.

Live: We live the values of diversity and inclusion as an extension of the Department of Residential Life mission statement. Our existence is for the development and support of ALL students. Discrimination of any form will be corrected through the philosophy of restorative justice with an emphasis on expanding wellbeing of the community at large. We endeavor to walk with our residents on this journey and together be forward thinking and world ready.
