

Gender and Sexuality Studies Minor
Sociology Degree Track

The 24-credit hour certificate and process will be administratively managed by the Sociology Program. The minor requires 18 Sociology credits and 6 elective credits from outside of Sociology.

Sociology requirements:

SOC 310	Gender and Society
SOC 311	Feminist Theory
SOC 466	Sociology of Sexualities
SOC 472	Social Inequality
SOC 312	Masculinities
SOC 715	Gender Research and Methods

Students will choose 6 credit hours from the following:

COMM 608	Communication and Gender
CRJ 340	Gender, Race, and Inequality in Criminal Justice
CRJ 365	Women and Crime
ENG 693	Studies in World Literature: Global Women's Issues
HIST 376	History of Sexuality in America
HIST 375	LGBTQ World History
HIST 651:	Women in US History
HIST 600:	Topics in History: Gender, Race, and Science
LDRS 420	Women and Leadership
PSY 325	Psychology of Human Sexuality

Additional Courses: Any courses that programs or departments wish to submit for potential inclusion in the minor must meet the following criteria:

1. At least 50% of course learning outcomes must specifically address issues related to gender and/or sexualities.
2. At least 50% of course content must specifically address gender and/or sexualities.
3. Course syllabi must be submitted for review by Sociology prior to approval for inclusion in the minor.