Privacy Official Contact: Lynn Adams, (785) 628-4293; laadams4@fhsu.edu

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. You can also have a printed copy of this notice if you prefer.

If you consent, the Fort Hays State University Student Health Center (FHSU) is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for those services.

Examples of uses of your health information for treatment purposes are:

- A clinician obtains treatment information about you and records it in a health record.
- During the course of your treatment, the clinician determines he/she will need to consult with another specialist in the area. He/she will share the information with such specialist and obtain his/her input.

An example of use of your health information for payment purposes:

- We submit a request for payment to your health insurance company. The health insurance company requests information from us regarding medical care given. We will provide information to them about you and the care given.

An example of use of your health information for health care operations:

- The state licensing authority wants to review records to assure that we have acted consistent with state law regarding your care. In doing so, it wants to take a sampling which includes review of your chart. At the licensing authority's request, we will provide it with a copy of your record.

Your Health Information Rights

The health record we maintain and billing records are the physical property of FHSU. The information in it, however, belongs to you. You have a right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request in writing to FHSU--we are not required to grant the request but we will comply with any request granted;
- Obtain a paper copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information ("Notice") by making a request at FHSU;
- Request that you be allowed to inspect and copy your health record and billing record-- you may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to FHSU using the form we provide to you upon request;
- Appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances;
- Request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request;

- File a statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment and any denial be attached in all future disclosures of your protected health information.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request; an accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment, payment, or operations, disclosures made to you or made at your request, or disclosures made to family members or friends in the course of providing care;
- Request that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to our office using the form we give you upon request; and,
- Revoke authorizations that you made previously to use or disclose information except to the extent information or action has already been taken by delivering a written revocation to our office.

You have a right to review the Notice before signing the consent authorizing use and disclosure or your protected health information for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact the Privacy Official listed at the top of this form in person or in writing, during normal hours. He will provide you with assistance on the steps to take to exercise your rights.

Our Responsibilities

FHSU is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law;
- Provide you with a notice as to our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this Notice;
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request; and,
- Accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you.

We reserve the right to amend, change or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of the notice by calling and requesting a copy of our "Notice" or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint

If you have questions, would like additional information or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact the Privacy Official listed at the top of this form.

Additionally, if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint at our office by delivering the written complaint to the Privacy Official listed at the top of this form.

You may also file a complaint by mailing it or e-mailing it to the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W. Washington, DC, 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints.

- We cannot, and will not, require you to waive the right to file a complaint with the secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) as a condition of receiving treatment from the office.
- We cannot and will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint with the Secretary.
