FHSU HONORS LATE ALUMNUS GIFT TOWARD CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT SCHOLARSHIPS

07/23/24

Few things made Fort Hays State University alumnus Mike Morgison happier than getting his hands dirty. From a messy, rough-and-tumble boy to a skilled man who could reassemble almost anything he pulled apart, Mike exemplified the value of hard work. Before he passed away in 2022, Mike put a gift in place to help FHSU students with similar interests.

MEET LEEA SMARSH, A SURVIVOR WHO HAS LEARNED TO THRIVE AT FHSU

07/05/24

Leea Smarsh, a soon-to-be Fort Hays State University graduate, may appear as an ordinary college student, balancing classes and a part-time job and facing the uncertainties of post-grad life. Yet, her story is a testament to the extraordinary power of resilience, determination, and a profound passion for making a difference, serving as an inspiration to all.
