knowledge & scholarship

FHSU INTRODUCES CUTTING-EDGE CRIMINALISTICS PROGRAM

09/18/24

A newly launched program at FHSU will help students “hit the ground running” in the critical field of solving crimes. To introduce students to FHSU’s new bachelor’s degree in Criminalistics, the departments of criminal justice, chemistry, biology, and geosciences hosted an open house in September.

KBOR FACULTY OF THE YEAR AWARD RECIPIENTS ANNOUNCED

09/19/24

The Kansas Board of Regents voted to name eight Faculty of the Year award recipients for 2024. The new program recognizes the outstanding contributions of faculty at state universities to teaching, student success, research, and Kansas communities. Faculty of the Year winners from FHSU were Sammuel Robert Byer, assistant professor in the department of history and philosophy, and Phillip Allen Olt, associate professor of advanced education programs.
