FORT HAYS STATE ANNOUNCES 2022 HOMECOMING EVENTS

09/16/22

Homecoming at Fort Hays State University will commence its yearly activities the weekend of Oct. 6 through Oct. 8. What better way to celebrate the season of pumpkin spice, cozy sweaters, and crisp leaves than with FHSU's favorite fall activities? The fall semester has commenced, the Tigers have kicked off their football season, and FHSU Homecoming is right around the corner with a packed schedule of events. With some events requiring advanced registration, Tiger fans should start mapping out their weekend plans now. Registration for select Homecoming 2022 events closes on Thurs. Sept. 29.

Accomplishments and Happenings

CRISIS AS PEDAGOGY: RECOMMENDATIONS FOR USING THE PANDEMIC IN LEADERSHIP EDUCATION

07/15/22

Dr. Brett Whitaker, chair and associate professor of leadership studies, and Dr. Lori Kniffin, assistant professor of leadership studies, recently published an article in the Journal of Leadership Education. The article outlines some of the pedagogical considerations for using a chaotic and trauma-filled set of experiences, such as those experienced during the pandemic, to teach leadership concepts.

DO BOARD MEMBER DUTIES OF CARE, LOYALTY, AND OBEDIENCE MATTER IN A DISASTER?

09/15/22

Dr. Abeni El-Amin, assistant professor of management and economics, recently published an article in Progress in Industrial Ecology, An International Journal. Her article points out that current disaster examples illuminate shortcomings of for-profit nursing homes during crises. Among the article's recommendations are for nursing homes to establish advisory committees of stakeholders for disaster preparedness and to increase preparedness training of all staff, first respondents, residents of capability, and residents' guardians.

ROUNDING UP

09/15/22

I recently read a posting by Meredith Houston Carr titled living a "round up" kind of life. In her article, she relayed a story about checking out of a store when the cashier asked her if she would like to round up her total in support of a children's charity. As she went about her day, she wondered: "where else in my life can I do round up – giving just a little more?"
