PHILANTHROPY AND THE WOOSTER SOCIETY AT FHSU

03/15/24

Growing up as the daughter of a barber and a bus driver, I couldn't have imagined that one day, I would be the President of Fort Hays State University. I was a first-generation college student — underfunded and underprepared. However, I had faith in my dreams. I had an on-campus job to help pay my bills but relied on the generosity of donors to reach my goals. Knowing I had strangers who believed in me and contributed to my success pushed me to be the best version of myself.
