

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

April 6, 2018

Top Stories

Riazi ranked No. 1 on international Problem-solving website 04/04/18

Dr. Mohammad Riazi-Kermani was ranked No. 1 in the world for the week of March 12 in the Mathematics Stack Exchange, a question and answer problem-solving website that has over 500,000 members studying math at any level and professionals in related fields.

Features

VIP Student Ambassadors named at FHSU

03/30/18

Local students are among the 23 students who will serve as VIP Student Ambassadors for the 2018-2019 academic school year at Fort Hays State University.

Accomplishments and Happenings

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY'S
STERNBERG MUSEUM
OF NATURAL HISTORY

Celebrate 20 years of Pokémon at Sternberg Museum

03/30/18

The Sternberg Museum of Natural History will celebrate 20 years of Pokémon on Saturday, April 14.

Korean students to present their culture, traditions through food, music, games

04/04/18

Korean students at Fort Hays State University will introduce their cuisine and culture to the university and Hays community at Korean Spice at 7 p.m. Friday, April 6, in the Memorial Union's Black and Gold Room.

Department of Informatics earns seven 1st-place awards at annual KAB competition

03/30/18

Digital media production and journalism students from the Fort Hays State University Department of Informatics recently earned seven first-place awards, two second-place awards and two honorable mentions at the annual Kansas Association of Broadcasters spring competition.

FHSU students, HCI receives recognition at regional conference

04/02/18

Two Fort Hays State University students and FHSU's Hispanic College Institute recently won awards at the 2018 NODA: Association for Orientation, Transition, and Retention in Higher Education Region IV and V Conference in Overland Park.

FHSU sophomore earns recognition at competition for business students

03/30/18

Allison Railsback, a Mankato sophomore majoring in agricultural business and agriculture education at Fort Hays State University, recently received recognition at the Kansas Phi Beta Lambda Awards of Excellence Program in El Dorado. Railsback competed in administrative technology, business communication, computer applications and business decision making (team), bringing home first place in all events. She also placed second in microeconomics.

FHSU students choose alternative route to spring break and volunteer in Texas

04/05/18

Volunteers from Tigers in Service at Fort Hays State University took an alternative route for spring break, spending the week in Amarillo, Texas. They completed a variety of tasks such as painting, hardware installation, and laying trim while working with Habitat for Humanity to finish houses and facilities.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu